On February 2, 2006, Mr. Williams began his five-year term of supervised release. He is currently residing at the Chippewa County Jail in Chippewa Falls with work release privileges. Mr. Williams has abided by the rules and regulations at the Chippewa County Jail with the exception of one incident wherein he deviated from his schedule for one hour and consumed a beer with his coworkers. This lapse resulted in a loss of work release privileges for five days. He is gainfully employed at a full-time job as a roofer for a local Eau Claire company. He has saved enough money to rent an apartment and move to Eau Claire. Due to the location of the jail and his lack of reliable transportation his continued stay at the facility has hindered his ability to maintain employment. Further, he cannot participate in local mental health treatment while there in custody.

U.S. Probation Office Recommendation: Despite his single lapse in judgment while at the jail, we recommend Mr. Williams' term of supervised release be modified to allow him to be released from the CCC prior to the 120-day minimum time period.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Laura Pryzbylinski Finn concurs with this recommendation.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
